MISSOULA--

The University of Montana announced its final out-of-state recruiting list, with nine more prep standouts from the Washington area joining the Grizzlies, and one California gridder.

An alphabetical breakdown:

Greg Amundsen, a 6-3, 215-pound lineman from Shorecrest High School in Seattle. Prep coach: Bob Court. Major: Accounting.

Curt Cleveland, a 6-5, 215-pound lineman from Evergreen High School in Seattle. An all-conference player, he was coached by Jim Fortner. Major: Undeclared.

John Hinson, is a 6-3, 215-pound tight end, outside linebacker from Shoreline High School in Seattle. Coached by Tom Wiley, he is an outstanding basketball player, and captain of his prep team. Major: Forestry.

John Lallas, is an offensive lineman, and is 6-2, 225 pounds. He preps at Sehome High School in Bellingham, WA., where he was coached by Herb Langeman. Major: Pre-law.

Mark Madsen, is a 6-5, 195-pound center from Ellensburg High School in Ellensburg, WA. Considered an excellent prospect, he is also a starter on the basketball team. He was coached in football by Glen Wietz. Major: Forestry.

Kevin Reimer (6-2, 175) is another recruit from Seattle, where he was a top-notch QB for Roosevelt High School. Coach: Art Wiper. "Kevin is an excellent prospect and an outstanding passer, as well as a basketball player, and will fit into our offensive scheme very well," said assistant coach Gary Ekegren. Major: Math/Science.
